THE HITT IS DIFFERENT!
Engage, Question, Gain Ideas.
Hear the ideas and thinking from high-calibre impulse generators, hotel industry leaders, and technology innovators!

HITT 2020: The virtual edition about Digitalization
The future is digital. The coronavirus crisis is driving us to a new form of collaboration. For June 2020, the 3rd Hospitality Inside Think Tank (HITT) is changing its format to ❖ a virtual event
❖ keeping up high-quality content & high-profile speakers
❖ as a well-orchestrated digital conference
❖ for international top executives and digital experts.

The online conference allows us
❖ to invite more participants from all over the world
❖ to listen and learn online
❖ to network and chat online
❖ accompanied by a professional and content-focused moderation.

The 2020 format cannot replace physical face2face talks and the special atmosphere of the previous think tank on the floating event ship in Berlin, but we can all stay in touch and up to date on the trends – knowing:

The time after corona is definitely going to be digital.

NOTE: Get-together at the hotel?

Since a virtual think tank cannot replace a real meeting, we are evaluating the possibility of offering an additional conference room in certain cities where participants from the respective region can meet to follow the HITT together. If you are interested in such an offer, you can tell us when you book and also which cities might be suitable for you.

YOUR MODERATOR AND FACILITATOR:
TIM DAVIS
Managing Director, Pace Dimensions

The Managing Director of PACE Dimensions will again moderate and facilitate the challenging topics HITT will discuss. In 2010 Tim founded his UK based research and management consulting firm; PACE Dimensions.

DUNCAN O’ROURKE
COO CENTRAL EUROPE, ACCOR

After studying hotel management at César Ritz Colleges Switzerland and obtaining a Master’s degree in Business Administration (MBA) from the Keim Management School, Duncan O’Rourke held several executive positions in the food and hotel sector in Europe, the USA and the Middle East. From 2004, he served as General Manager at the Kempinski Hotel Thessaloniki Nikopolis, before taking charge of the pre-opening of two hotels in London. O’Rourke was then promoted to the position of Regional Director & General Manager of the Kempinski Ishtar Dead Sea in Jordan. In this position, he was responsible for ten pre-openings of Kempinski properties in the region. In 2008, he was appointed Chief Operating Officer of Kempinski Hotels and joined the Management Board at the same time.

Duncan O’Rourke joined Accor at the end of 2016, and as the COO Europe for the luxury segment, he has been responsible for the operational management of all of the 140 luxury hotels in the Europe region. In September 2018 he was promoted to COO Central Europe. In his capacity, he leads the teams in Germany, Austria and Switzerland.

Duncan O’Rourke was involved in the transformation process of the newly created Accor Region Central Europe, which now also comprises all business in Switzerland.

TOM SEDDON
CEO-IN-RESIDENCE, FOUNDRY.AI

Tom Seddon, one of the global AI thought leaders today, started his career with the InterContinental Hotels Group in 1994. After 10 years in various roles he moved on to the Subway Franchisee Advertising Fund Trust Ltd. (S’AFT), a company providing restaurants services. But the hotel industry wouldn’t let him go, and Tom returned to IHG again, this time in his role as Chief Marketing Officer.

Then he switched to the US hotel group Extended Stay America, likewise in the position of Chief Marketing Officer. In 2016 Tom decided to take an unusual step: he stepped out of operation and studied information and data science at the University of California in Berkeley – discovering the importance of new digital era and leading him to the foundation of foundry.ai.

Foundry.ai is a technology studio that creates AI software companies in partnership with the Global 2000. We focus on practical applications of AI that drive immediate, measurable, and recurring improvements to business performance. Since 2015, Foundry.ai has built impactful software solutions focused on demand-based decision making, healthcare services optimization, procurement efficacy, go-to-market effectiveness, digital ad user engagement, and more. With fundamental AI infrastructure, ~100MM in capital, and former executives of large global enterprises in leadership.
